LOCAL ITEMS.

We are requested to say that the young men of Jonesboro will meat at the Methodist Church on Tuesday next to form a "Young men's Christian Associa-

BB Rev. R. P. Wells preached, in the Presbyteria Church last Sabbath, the funeral of the late Rev. Samuel A. Rhea, who died a missimary among the Nestorian in Persia.

Rev. Mr. Waterbury preached also in the same Church at night a most excellent sermon. We sincerely hope Mr. Waterbury will be retained as pastor of the Church. He is the man to build up the Church on a permanent basis. Let every member strengtnen him by strict attendance both to Church and Sabbath School, and every other effort in their power.

THE METHODIST ALMANAC FOR 1866 .- We have been favored by Rev. R. D. Black, with a copy of this Almanac for 1866, being the Centenary of American Methodism, which contains complete statistics of the Church, and a summary view of Methodism throughout the world. It gives full tables of the Churches and Church property, the Sunday school work, number of preachers and members, amount of benevolent contributions, items concerning the great movements of the Jersey, and the scepter from the Church in the evangelization of the world, democracy Mr. Nasby, the long-sufand a retrospect of the Churche's progress fering apostle and pastor of the during the period of its existence. It also Church of the Dispensation, is even contains a Domestic Calendar adapted peculiarly to ladies, and bints for out-door work suitable for each of the months. The Politi- passage to Brazil, where alone the cal Calendar includes the various depart- sacred institution remains in its prisments of the Government of the United States, tine splender. So goes the world-a and a Rebellion Record for 1864-5. It is printed on finely-calendered paper in the in his own country. neatest style of typography, and is sold at only 10 cents a copy. Almanacs can be had at James A. Dillworth's Drug Store, for only of the copperhead democracy has 10 cents each-the publisher's price at Cincinnatti, Obio.

The Methodist, is a vigorous Church; its growth is wonderful. According to the reports; we we learn from late statistic, sthey have 9 Bishops, 60 annual Conferences, 6,821 Itinerant, and 8,205 Local Ministers. Over 10,000 Churches and about 3,000 Parsonages. 928,320 Communicants; 13,163 Sunday Schools with 148,475 Teachers and 859,700 Scholars.

They have 161 Missionaries in foreign lands with 7,022 Church members; and 286 Missionaries among the foreigners in our own country, with 26,138 communicants in their Churches, and 800 domestic Missionaries .-Have 22 Universities and Colleges; 3 Theological Institues and 84 Seminaries and Acad-would call the attention of all good citizens to make every effort to spread the truths of the Bible. After so long a time we have received from the American Bible Society, for our Washington County Bible Society, a fine lot of Bibles and Testaments. They are now on sale at the store of Messrs Hoss & Lampson. They are furnished our county society at the cost of publishing them, we add simply percent enough to pay the expenses of transportation. These Bibles are much cheaper than they could be sold by any person doing business for themselves, but the American Bible Society was formed and entered upon their work simply to benefit the people. It is a national institution, and knows no sectionality. The old debts of our county society were all cancelled by the parent society, and a very large lot of books now furnished us. that no one need be destitute. Where persons are known to be too poor to buy, this precious book will be turnished them. There are all varieties of Bibles and Testaments to the found here now from the fine family Bible down to the common Testaments. For the East Tennesses Union Fing.] CAPT. GRISHAM :- Please aflow me, throng : the medium of your excellent Union Flag, to return my grateful acknowledgements to Enoch Bransom, Esq., of Knoxville, Tenn., and his worthy and interesting family, for the noble kindness which they bestowed upon me during my illness, after having my limb amputated. The kindness manifested by his accomplished daughters, Miss Sue and Miss Rebecca, especially, will ever be remem-bered gratefully while I am permitted to live and breathe the air of true liberty. Such acts will live long after death has spread
